Quin Etheridge-Pedden is a young emerging musician from Nanaimo, BC. Quin's knowledge of music of different genres and experience playing in different groups has allowed him to create a solo 'one-man band' using a loop pedal, fiddle, guitar, percussion and voice. In 2017 Quin released his first solo CD, Embark, which was nominated for a Canadian Folk Music Award in the Young Artist of the year category in 2017. Quin's second album, Out of the Blue, was released on May 1, 2020.

"Make no mistake, possessing what appears to be an uncanny innate ability, and with two fine albums under his belt before he's even entered his third decade, Quin with One N is set to enjoy a long and very bright musical future."
